DEDICATION

The 1979-1980 THESAURUS is dedicated to Sister JoAnne Courneen for her five years of service to Mercyhurst Preparatory School. Sister JoAnne, as Vice-Principal, Disciplinarian, and Math Department Chairman, was able to communicate with the students in a variety of rolls. Through all of them, however, her message was the same: Each of us must accept the responsibility of every action we have performed and every word that we have spoken.

There is a tide
in the affairs of men,
Which,
taken at the flood,
leads on to fortune;
Omitted,
all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows
and in miseries.
Shakespeare.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government is the representative organization for the MPS student community, acting as a liaison among faculty, administration, and students. During the past school year, Student Government has added another requirement, the students must do ten hours of service to the school. It's main function, though, has remained the same: To make student opinion a major factor in school decisions. Students sssume the various positions through elections, open to the entire student body. Six students from each class are voted as representatives; three more become class officers. The entire student government is under direction of the executive board which consists of five members: Three underclassmen and two seniors. The two seniors held the highest elected offices: President and Vice-President.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

CLASS OFFICERS

Seniors: Scott Wiley, President; Judy Zimmerman, Vice President; Joe Sullivan, Sec-Treas.

Juniors: Annette Vacanti, President; Ken Regenor, V-President; Jaci Bertone, Sec-Treas.

Sophomores: Nadine Potalivo, Sec-Treas. Alan Natalie, President; Chris Hoffman, V-President.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is composed of students who have exhibited outstanding ability in academic, leadership, and service-related skills. National Honor Society sponsors assemblies for the benefit of the student body, a book collection as donations to hospitals, homes and libraries, and runs a tutoring program for individual students. The members also act as guides for open house and other school sponsored activities.

Scott Wiley, President; Carole Nies, Vice President; Frank Pregler, Sec-Treas.; Ms. Victoria Hoff, Moderator.

KEY CLUB

Mary Temple, Moderator

The Key Club in conjunction with the Kiwanis Club is a service-oriented group which serves both the community and the school. The members strive to complete their goals of service to others during the course of the year, and devote their time and talents to helping others. The Key Clubs motto this year is "Caring — Our Way of Life." The members are given the opportunity to form new friendships both within the school and in the community.

PEER HELPERS

The Peer Helpers are students who have received thirty hours of training in basic communication skills. Once trained, the helper is then available to exchange information with troubled peers. Peer Helpers can be found in the "Rap Room", the outer office of the guidance suite.

Mrs. Kay Pagni, Moderator

FOREIGN FRIENDS

Over the past school year, MPS has hosted five foreign students. They are from the countries of France, Germany, Holland, Iran, and Nigeria.

RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross is a national service organization with varied activities. Some of these services include making tray favors, bedside gardens, and jokebooks. Activities include putting on variety shows for the VA hospital and donating time to help hospitalized or handicapped people in the community.

Sr. M. Joachim Stabler; Moderator
Michelle Skrzypczak, President
Kathy Goodrich, Vice President

FUTURE PROBLEM SOLVING

The Future Problem Solving Club is involved in solving hypothetical yet very possible problems that deal with future life. The nation headquarters for the Future Problem Solving Club is in Athens, Georgia. The solutions to problems are submitted to and scored by a national panel. Qualifying teams then compete in the finals held in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mrs. Carolyn Pommer, Moderator

DRAMA CLUB

The Mercyhurst Prep Green Rumors have been keeping busy this theatrical season, conducting three productions, all performing to capacity crowds. Included in this year's success story were the fall's mystery drama, "The Haunting of Hill House," MPS's Variety Show, "Mirage II," and the Tony-award winning musical, "Applause." Time and time again, Green Rumor entertainers amazed audiences to their feet.

Joel Natalie, Scott Wiley, Assistant Directors; Joe Sullivan, Technical Director.

THESPIANS

Ms. Kathy Cannarozzi, Director.

The International Thespian Society is an honor organization for students who have been involved extensively with the theatre. Honor points are given to participants of each aspect of the theatre, whether it be on or off back stage.

Art Martone, Pres.; Joel Natalie, Vice-Pres.; Sam Cohen, Sec.-Treas.

CTE

The Children's Theatre Ensemble consists of selected students who perform in two educational programs, written by the students, created for grade school curriculum. The programs, designed for K-4 and 5-8 grade groups, will be toured throughout area school districts in the spring. The members have been working diligently during Mod 1 for the past year writing scripts and songs, organizing props, and scheduling performances.

APPLAUSE!

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club of MPS promotes student creations of scientific projects, for competition, in the areas of physics, biology, chemistry, ecology, botany, and electronics. Each member submits a science project at the city level of Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science. Students who do well at the city level, may then attend the state level of the project.

Sr. Carol Ann Voltz, Moderator

LITURGY PLANNING COMMITTEE

The purpose of the Liturgy Planning Committee is to plan and execute meaningful liturgies for MPS. Fall and spring retreats provided members the time to organize liturgies for religious celebrations.

Mrs. Mary Alice Doolin and Mrs. Colleen McLaughlin, Moderators

TEENAGE ACTION CLUB

Michael Bari, Aimee Hoffman, Louise Leemhuis and Annette Vacanti, MPS Representatives; Sr. Carol Anne Voltz, Moderator.

TAC is a service organization with 750 members consisting of students from all of the Erie Catholic high schools. The club offers time and service to senior citizens, underprivledged children and to anyone in need in the Erie community. TAC also provides the opportunity to meet new people through social functions and fundraisers such as the Halloween party, putt putt party, skate-a-thon, and coffee house.

SKI CLUB

The MPS Ski Club provides students with the opportunity to learn and to develop a proficiency in the sport. During the season, the Ski Club travels every Wednesday up to Peak 'n Peak ski resort in Clymer, New York for an exciting evening of downhill skiing. The club also sponsors an annual ski expedition. This year the club ventured to Holiday Valley, a ski resort in New York.

Eugene J. Bocan, Moderator.

FINE ARTS

The fine arts club is a group of enthusiastic artists who are interested in pursuing their diversified talents in art. Their most exciting project was an art competition open to all the Erie area high schools in Arts Week. The students also enjoyed art appreciation trips to the Clevand Museum of Art and the Albright Knox Gallery in Buffalo.

Moderator, Mrs. Pommer

ARCHERY

The newly created Archery Club has set many challenging goals this year. The members plan to develop a sense of sportsmanship through regular practice sessions, and to achieve precision in the art of archery.

Moderator, Sr. Peter

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club, a newly founded organization at MPS this year, is responsible for generating school spirit among the students in support of athletic events. The members sell refreshments and tickets and create posters to stimulate fan attendance and participation.

CHORUS
INSTRUMENTAL GROUP

The MPS Chorus performs for a wide variety of people. They entertain all with their winter and spring concerts. This year, the chorus will produce their first album and perform with the Mercyhurst College Choir. They are in Winter Interlude at the Warner Theater and expect to continue performing in competition.

This year, at MPS, an instrumental group was formed by eight students. They perform at various functions such as the Variety Show, and masses. The instruments played are, drums, piano, guitars, congas, flute, and accordian.

Miss Elizabeth Stage, Moderator

MADRIGALS

The eight Madrigal Singers perform as a group within a group of the Chorus during the Chorus concerts. Last year was a first for the group, for they performed in Ohio for the Medival Fools Fair festival, and now also plans to perform in Erie's own festival at Mercyhurst College this year.

FOLK GROUP

The Folk Group consists of guitars, flutes, harmonica, tambourine, piano, and fifteen voices. They accompany the school in liturgies, parent-student class liturgies and retreats.

FORENSICS

Sr. Peter, Sr. Dolores, Miss Briscoe, Moderator

The Forensics Club of MPS assists and encourages interested students to develop speech and leadership skills through city-wide judged competitions in drama, oral declamation, original oratory and extemporaneous speaking. The Forensics members participate in the N.C.F.L. and invitational tournaments in the area. Competative meets are held on the average of once a month. The most important meet this year is the national tournament in Boston, Mass.

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club is a new club this year at M.P.S. members read, research, and discuss famous literary works such as The Arthurism Legends and Voltaires Candicle. This gives the members a better understanding and appreciation of great literature and the authors who wrote these works.

Mrs. Patricia Root, Moderator.

MEDIEVAL ARTS

Charles A. Stachera, Moderator

The Medieval Arts Club, now in its second year, continues to enhance the students imaginations by studying the culture, history, and society of the middle ages. Last summer, the club journeyed to Lake Erie College for Grande Fools' fair and this year they are planning a Royal Spring celebration here at M.P.S.

USHERS CLUB

Ms. Kathleen Cannorozzi, Moderator; Mark Waltz, President; Jaci Brown, Beth Quinn, Vice Presidents; Lisa Boesh, Secretary

The Ushers Club is new this year at M.P.S. It's members are responsible for seating people, passing out programs, and taking tickets.

RACQUETBALL

The Racquetball Club is a newly formed club at MPS. The members play each week to learn the strategic skill of the fast playing game. The players gather every Tuesday at Kings Court to compete and have fun playing racquetball.

Mr. Ronald Rossi, Moderator

BOWLING

The Bowling Club of MPS consists of twelve teams, four students each, bowling through the year, Eastland Lanes is the place; Monday is the night. Each team competes in house eliminations to determine what team from MPS will take part in city finals against other participating schools. Besides being good exercise, bowling is a sport which strengthens teamwork, fosters good sportsmanship, and can be carried through a lifetime.

Sr. M. Joachim Stabler, Moderator

HANDBOOK/HIGH-Q

A small number of school organizations work during the summer on school affairs. One of the few is the MPS handbook committee, who formulated the book of guidlines that the students have followed this year. Committee members worked diligently so fellow students could be informed of school policy.

Lorraine Fabin, Ron Rydewski, Amy Harding: Chairpersons. Ms. Hoff, Mrs. Betti-Leib, Moderators.

The quiz kids of the Mercyhurst Prep High-Q team take on the city in the annual question and answer tournament. The four member team has engaged in a battle-of-the-wits with area high schools such as St. Benedicts, McDowell and others. They vie for individual $1000 scholarships from Gannon University.

Ms. V. Hoff, Mrs. G. Johnson, Moderators.

THE 1980 THESARUS STAFF

Lorraine Fabin,
Editor

The yearbook staff at MPS consists of interested students who work together to design a book from cover to cover that will give the reader an accurate and interesting account of the years happenings at MPS. Each student learns to crop photographs, design pleasing layouts, write, type, proof, and layout copy, sell ads and patrons, and work under stringent deadline schedules. This year, the staff continued some long-standing THESARUS traditions including senior sayings and senior color candids, and it added spot color to senior pages and implemented a new senior sport page.

SPECTRUM CONTROL

A GROWING INTERNATIONAL HIGH TECHNOLOGY COMPANY HEADQUARTERED IN NORTHWESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Spectrum Control is the industry leader in providing engineering services and manufactured electronic components for the control of electronic pollution. Electronic pollution occurs when the electromagnetic energy or radio frequency waves from one electronic equipment or system interferes with another. Spectrum offers the most advanced independent interference test facility in the world and produces EMI filters, capacitors, filtered connectors as well as radio frequency gasketing and shielding products. Spectrum Control employs over 400 people in facilities located in Fairview and Saegertown, Pa. and at a new location in Los Angeles, CA. The company had sales of nearly $7,000,000 in 1978 and expects sales of over $10,000,000 in 1979. Spectrum Control is an equal opportunity employer with continuing career opportunities in management, manufacturing, purchasing, engineering, marketing, and accounting.

FUTURES TO CELEBRATE BEGIN AT MERCYHURST

We offer our students solid Career Programs teamed with the Liberal Arts . . . enriched by the Christian values of our heritage.

Prepared. Competitive. Self-Confident.

A good choice of words to describe the Mercyhurst graduate.

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION

This practical "learn and earn" program adds on-the-job experience to classroom theory. It allows students to test their career choices early . . . while earning a paycheck to help finance their education.

Co-op careers are available in 22 of our 25 academic programs.

"YOU'LL LOVE ERIE!"

250,000 other sun bathers, water skiers, boaters, horse racing fans, and Alpine skiers do. One great Lake has helped make us Pennsylvania's third largest city.

Mrs. Root,
I had a great time in your Class this year. You gave me an inspiration. I think I will go to Texas. Your Classes wont be the same without me. Well I planned to write more but I caint think of any, So have a nice summer and I hope to see you during the summer.
"See you all later!"

Love
Kathleen

P.S. How many punctuation errors did I make?

I did not receive answers.

look at that

Mrs. Root,
I really enJoyed your class it made my day. Don't forget to get me in Junior year. I will look forward to it with a waiting brain (wrinkled a little)

Love
Caroline

P.S. I did not receive any answers on this yearbook.

Mrs. Root,
I really loved your class this year! It was my favorite class of the day!
I only wish I had you next year and the years after that. Make sure I'm in your class Junior year. I'll look forward to it. Thanks again for making this year a great one! Have A nice Summer!!
See you next year and maybe
over the summer!!

Love,

P.S. I didn't Receive any answers either.

Señora Root,

tu eres ~~muy~~ mi profesora favorita por que tu eres muy simpatica. Tu me hace sonrein todos los dias y rein me cuando hablo español.

El ano que viene rego que podemos hablar como inteligente hentes (si aprendo hablar inteligente)

Rego que tiene un verano muy agradable.

Te quiero con todo me corazon y (brain)

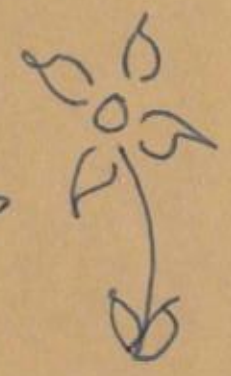
Dear Mrs. Root,

To a super super teacher! Thanks so much for lending me your books this winter. Through those + through your teaching I've learned so much. Only wish you could be my English teacher next year. Oh well, but you better be ready for your old class yuman year! See you 'round

Love,

Sue

DEAR Mrs. Root (Patsy)
You're the best English teacher I've ever had. I've learned so much, yet I've had a lot of fun too. You've sure made learning much more exciting. Thanks for a super year!



Love,
Jennifer L.
